Addendum
To Proof of Claim of New York State Department of Labor

New England Motor Freight -- Case No. 19-12809 (JKS)

This claim is made pursuant to the New York State Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act (WARN Act)[New York State Labor Law §860, et seq.], in the nature of back pay and benefits for a 60 day WARN violation period as determined by the NYS Department of Labor (in accordance with Labor Law §§860-b and 860-f(7)). The employer terminated approximately 614 employees and provided no WARN notices.

A claim for administrative priority is based on 11 U.S.C. § 503(b)(1)(A)(ii). To the extent that administrative priority might be denied, priority pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 507(a)(4) and/or (5) is claimed up to the monetary limits stated in those sections.

The amount stated in the proof of claim reflects an estimate of the back pay and benefits due to each employee and is subject to verification and completion of an investigation by and hearing before the Commissioner of Labor pursuant to NYS Labor Law § 860-f, as authorized pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §362(b)(4). The estimate for wages in the proof of claim was made using the best currently available data, which was the quarterly wage reports submitted by the employer to New York State. The estimate for WARN benefit liability was obtained using information available from the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics National Compensation Survey, benefits as a percentage of total compensation. As authorized by 11 U.S.C. §362(b)(4) and pursuant to Labor Law § 860-f, the Department will continue to pursue and review relevant employee pay records from the debtor, to audit those records, to develop a more exact calculation of the amount owed by the debtor prior to administrative adjudication of the matter, and to obtain an exact and liquidated amount.

NYS Labor Law §860-h also authorizes the Commissioner of Labor to assess a penalty in the amount of $500 for each day of violation. Based on 60 days of liability, a penalty in the amount of $30,000 was added to the estimated wages. The Department does not claim administrative or other priority for such penalty.
